

Department for Communities and Local Government

My Community locality

mycommunity.org.uk

What is Neighbourhood Planning?

Neighbourhood planning, introduced by the Localism Act 2011, is the opportunity for communities to set planning policies for the future development of their neighbourhood. See our overview at

<http://ow.ly/YWiGx>

Who's doing it?

Over 1,800
communities nationwide:

<http://ow.ly/YWf3d>

What are they doing?

Find examples at:

<http://ow.ly/YWfJJ>

View stories at:

<http://ow.ly/YWk3H>

What support is available?

Communities can apply for grants of up to £8,000. Groups facing more complex issues can access extra funds and direct technical support.

For help and to apply:

<http://mycommunity.org.uk/neighbourhood-planning>

View resources:

<http://ow.ly/YWjNI>

Follow us on Twitter

@CommunitiesUK

#neighbourhoodplanning

Join the discussions on

LinkedIn at

<http://ow.ly/YWgKU>

What's the Process?

<https://www.gov.uk/neighbourhood-planning>

Where can I find the Planning Guidance?

<http://planningguidance.planningportal.gov.uk/>

DCLG regularly sends out a 'Notes on Neighbourhood Planning' newsletter.

To sign up, send an email titled 'Sign me up to Notes' to decentralisation@communities.gsi.gov.uk

Or view the archive: <http://bit.ly/YrFyUh>

Make a plan MAKE A DIFFERENCE